What can you expect on this course?

Your English course

In classes of no more than 15 students from around the world, you will take part in fun, energising and creative General English lessons, all of which are designed to be interesting and relevant to you and your classmates. Lessons take place in our Freestyle centres in exciting central locations in London or Malta, allowing you easy access to all the highlights of these vibrant destinations.

Activities

When not in class you will be making the most of your time taking part in a fun social programme mixing with other students, practising your English and gaining unforgettable experiences. You will enjoy all the highlights of your chosen destination, and will also have lots of free time to make your own plans.
