1. British Immigration Authorities

1.1 The Student is responsible for complying in full with any requirements of the British Immigration Authorities before the commencement of the Course and throughout the duration of the Course.

1.2 If required, on receipt from the Student of the Registration Fee and subsequently the Tuition Fees, the College will provide the Student with appropriate written confirmation of the status of the Student's application for the Course and the College will allow the Student to forward such written confirmation to the British Immigration Authorities as proof of enrolment

1.3 The Student acknowledges and accepts that Package Courses will be treated as a single course of study by the British Immigration Authorities

1.4 If, during the duration of the Course, the Student needs to extend his Visa then the Student is responsible for ensuring that the extension is obtained. Provided that the Student has complied in full with these terms and conditions, the College will provide the Student with the appropriate documents.

1.5 The College reserves the right not to enroll any Student if it believes that his/her intentions do not comply with the British Immigration Authorities rules and regulations.

1.6 The Student must allow the College to inspect and copy the Student's passport and any other documents relating to the Student's Visa

2. Enrolment and Tuition Fees

2.1 The Student acknowledges that:

2.1.1 the College will advise the Student on the suitability of Courses based on the information provided but that the Student is solely responsible for selecting the Course that is most suitable;

2.1.2 he or she must ensure that he or she enrolls in sufficient time to ensure that a Visa can be obtained and all requirements of the British Immigration Authorities met;

2.1.3 places on Courses are subject to availability and may be refused at the College's discretion;

2.1.4 the minimum age for enrolment is 16 years; and

2.1.5 class sizes may vary depending on the particular Course

2.2 The payment of Tuition Fees, Registration Fee and any additional fees must be paid in full before commencing the Course.

2.3 Once paid, Tuition Fees and the Registration Fee cannot be transferred for the benefit of another student

3. Additional Charges

3.1 The Tuition Fees entitle the Student to receive academic instruction in relation to the chosen Course but do not cover the cost of other materials and services that the Student may require, including, but not limited to, text books, examination fees, bank charges, insurances, social activities and travel expenses. The Student is required to purchase such of these materials and services as are requisite for the completion of the Course

3.2 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 3.1 of these terms and conditions, Students will be required to buy textbooks necessary for their chosen Course and may be required, at any time during the Course, to purchase additional textbooks in the event that they progress to different levels of that Course

4. Registration Fee

4.1 Students applying for a General Student Visa will be required to pay the GSV Registration Fee (GSVStudents) This fee includes the application Processing Charges, 1 Skype Interview (if required) and full refund if the Application is refused by Malvern House. It does not include CAS fee.

4.2 EU students and students applying for a non-GSV Visa will be required to pay Registration fee (EU or non-GSV Applicants). This fee includes the application Processing Charges and a full refund in the case of visa refusal, if relevant.

5. Student Records

5.1 The Student will be required to provide the College with such Personal Information as the College reasonably requires and the Student will ensure that such Personal Information is updated in the event of any changes

5.2 The Student permits the College to store records of the Student's Personal Information and to disclose this information to others as required by law

6. Administration of Courses

6.1 Failure to start the Course on its commencement date or to complete the Course without providing an acceptable explanation to the College will result in the expulsion of the Student from the Course without a refund or transfer to another Course

6.2 If a Student wishes to change the time or date of classes, appropriate requests must be made to the reception staff on or before Thursday for the transfer to be effective from the following Monday. All changes are subject to availability and at the College's discretion and an administration fee might apply

6.3 The duration of the Course or the time allotted to complete the Course will not be extended by unauthorised absences, uncertified illnesses or the payment of additional fees. Any additional fee payments made will be treated as payments toward Tuition Fees for a new Course

6.4 The College will use its reasonable endeavors to accommodate the Student in relation to the location and timing of classes but reserves the right to change campuses, teachers, times and rooms and to combine classes for different Courses at its discretion

6.5 For Courses that have entry level requirements or for Courses in relation to which the Student has received a conditional offer, if it is found that the Student's written and spoken English does not meet the requirements of the Course, then the Student will be required to complete an additional language course and the cost of such course will be payable by the Student prior to the commencement of the additional course

6.6 Should the Student wish to transfer to another Course, this will be at the College's discretion and subject to payment of a Course Transfer Fee and the grant of permission by the British Immigration Authorities if applicable

7. Class Levels

7.1 All Students are required to take a test prior to commencement of their Course to determine the appropriate level of study on the Student's chosen Course

7.2 The College's decision as to the appropriate level of study for the Student is final and the Student acknowledges that:

7.2.1 no refund of Tuition Fees will be given if the Student is dissatisfied with the allocated level of study; and

7.2.2 while the College will use its reasonable endeavors to accommodate the Student in relation to study level, any change to the Student's study level will be at the College's absolute discretion

8. Refunds

8.1 Subject to the provisions of this clause 8, the Student will be entitled to a refund of Tuition Fees if the Student is refused a Visa provided that:

8.1.1 no refund will be paid if refusal is due to the fact that the Student has not taken the required steps in applying for a Visa;

8.1.2 the original letter from the British Immigration Authorities indicating the refusal of a Visa must be submitted to the College;

8.1.3 no refund will be available once the Course has commenced;

8.1.4 no refund will be paid if refusal is due to the fact that the Student has submitted fraudulent documents;

8.1.5 refunds may take up to 3 weeks to process once the letter referred to at clause 8.1.2 is received by the College;

8.1.6 refunds will be issued to the person who made the initiation payment and, if a credit/debit card was used to make payment, the refund will be issued to that debit/credit card;

8.1.7 no refund will be issued if the Student withdraws the application for a Visa or is expelled from the Course or expelled from the UK by an authorised authority or government department; and

8.1.8 No refund will be given if a Student is granted a Visa and then decides they do not want to study through the College.

In this instance the college will inform the British Immigration Authorities that the Student has been accepted on and has not commenced a Course.

8.1.9 If payment has been made through an Agent, then the refund will be issued via that Agent

8.1.10 If a non-GSV Applicant has a visa refusal, they will get a full refund minus the registration fee

8.1.11 Excluding clause 8.1.4, if a GSV Applicant has a refusal, the following refund terms apply:

Because of MH Documents: Re-application is free. If the student decides not to re-apply, all fees refunded.

Because of any other reason: If Re-applying registration fee and CAS fee are chargeable. If NOT Re-Applying all fees minus £150 administration fee

8.1.12 Malvern House does not accept any responsibility in the case of visa refusals. In the instance of a refusal being related to Malvern House documentation we will refund all tuition fees and assist the student in applying again. However no additional compensation will be given.

9. Cancellations

9.1 Excluding clauses 8.1.7, 8.1.8, 8.1.10 and 8.1.11 the Student shall be entitled to cancel the Course at any time before the Course start date and the amount refunded will vary as follows according to how much notice of cancellation in advance of the start date the Student has given:

9.1.1 If the Student gives 7 weeks or more notice of cancellation, the Student will be refunded 80% of the Tuition Fees paid;

9.1.2 If the Student gives 5-6 weeks or more notice of cancellation, the Student will be refunded 65% of the Tuition Fees paid;

9.1.3 If the Student gives 3-4 weeks or more notice of cancellation, the Student will be refunded 50% of the Tuition Fees paid;

9.1.4 If the Student gives 2 weeks or more notice of cancellation, the Student will be refunded 20% of the Tuition Fees paid;

- 9.1.5 If the Student gives 1 week's or more notice of cancellation, the Student will be refunded 10% of the Tuition Fees paid;
9.1.6 If the Student gives less than 1 week's notice of cancellation, the Student will not be entitled to receive any refund

10. Holidays

10.1 Students may be entitled to take holidays depending on the administration of their chosen Course. Please see the information provided in connection with the relevant Course. Where holiday entitlement is restricted to pre-scheduled dates, Students will not be authorised to take holidays at any other times

10.2 Students may be required to use some of their holiday allowance during periods when the College closes for public holidays (including, but not limited to, over Christmas, Summer and the new year period) and there will be no reduction in Tuition Fees should the College close for public holidays or College training days.

10.3 Students may be required to book their holidays in advance and cancellations may result in the Student incurring administration fees

10.4 The College has the right to insist that Students use their holiday entitlement at particular times and no refund of Tuition Fees will be available if the Student is not willing or able to take holidays at such times

11. Accommodation

11.1 The College will use its reasonable endeavors to provide the Student with Homestay or Residence at the Student's preference but the Student's first choice of Accommodation may not always be available. The cost of accommodation will be determined by the College from time to time

11.2 When booking Accommodation, the Student must:

11.2.1 book Accommodation for a minimum of two weeks;

11.2.2 pay the Arrangement Fee;

11.2.3 pay a £100 Credit Card deposit in the case of Malvern House Select Accommodation and some Residence Accommodation

11.2.4 ensure that arrival and departure dates are given to the College.

11.3 In relation to Accommodation, the Student acknowledges that:

11.3.1 arrival and departure dates may only be changed by special arrangement and that changes may be subject to a surcharge;

11.3.2 arrivals for Residence must be on Sundays only unless published otherwise

11.3.3 once the Student has been admitted into the UK, no refund of accommodation fees paid will be available; and

11.3.4 any request to change Accommodation after arrival will be dealt with at the College's discretion and subject to availability.

11.4 If the Student wishes to cancel any booked Accommodation, then the following cancellation fees will apply:

11.4.1 in relation to Homestay:

11.4.1.1 if the Student gives notice of cancellation more than 14 days before scheduled arrival the Arrangement Fee, if not already paid, will be payable;

11.4.1.2 If the Student gives notice of cancellation 8-14 days before scheduled arrival, 1 week's Accommodation fees and the Arrangement Fee, if not already paid, are payable;

11.4.1.3 if the Student gives notice of cancellation 0-7 days before scheduled arrival or fails to arrive, 2 weeks' Accommodation fees and the Arrangement Fee, if not already paid, are payable

11.4.1.4 Once the Student has moved into Homestay, the Student cannot cancel that Homestay for at least 4 weeks from the date of moving in. After that, Homestay can be cancelled on 7 days' notice

11.4.2 in relation to Malvern House Select Accommodation:

11.4.2.1 if the Student gives notice of cancellation more than 14 days before scheduled arrival at a Malvern House Select residence the Arrangement Fee, if not already paid, is payable;

11.4.2.2 If the Student gives notice of cancellation 8-14 days before scheduled arrival, 1 week's Accommodation fees and the Arrangement Fee, if not already paid, are payable;

11.4.2.3 if the Student gives notice of cancellation 0-7 days before scheduled arrival or fails to arrive, 2 weeks' Accommodation fees and the Arrangement Fee, if not already paid, are payable

11.4.3 In relation to Residence Accommodation, individual providers' terms and condition may apply. Please see the College's website for details

11.5 The College has the right, where reasonable to remove the student from the Accommodation for unacceptable behaviour. For the avoidance of doubt the College views unacceptable behaviour as including but not limited to, causing damage to property, causing disturbance or nuisance, abusive or disrespectful conduct, failing to observe house rules.

12. Airport Collections

12.1 The College may be able to collect students from the airport. This service is subject to availability and to payment in advance of fees set from time to time by the College

12.2 The fee charged to the Student for collection from the airport will include waiting time of 2 hours from the time of arrival that the Student has specified to the College. Any additional waiting time will be charged at the rate of £10 for every thirty minutes

12.3 In relation to airport collections, the Student is responsible for supplying full and correct information of travel requirements and for updating this information as and when necessary

12.4 No refund will be given if notice of cancellation of an airport transfer is given less than 7 days.

13. Attendance and Time Keeping

13.1 Students are obliged to attend all classes and to observe the timetables set in relation to their Course and the College will not be responsible if the Student misses any teaching time. The College will only issue documents indicating completion of the Course if attendance and performance has been satisfactory in the College's opinion

13.2 Students must arrive at classes before the published start time and return promptly after any break. If a Student arrives more than 20 minutes late to a class then the Student will be excluded from class and no refund of Tuition Fees paid will be made as a result. If a Student is persistently late to classes, the Student may be excluded from the Course and no refund of Tuition Fees will be made as a result.

13.3 If a Student is absent from class:

13.3.1 if the absence is due to illness, a doctor's certificate must be provided;

13.3.2 if the Student is absent from class without a doctor's certificate we reserve the right to exclude them from the Course and may only be readmitted at the College's discretion;

13.3.3 if the Student has ongoing low attendance, and is studying on a Visa, the British Immigration Authorities will be informed

13.3.4 if, due to unauthorised absences, the Student is excluded from the Course, no refunds of Tuition Fees or extension of teaching time will be given

14. Examinations

14.1 Students will ordinarily be entered for examinations at the Students request but the College reserves the right not to enter the Student for an examination if, in the College's opinion, the Student has not attained the required standard required by the College

14.2 The Student is responsible for paying all examination fees in advance of examinations and all examination fees paid are non-refundable

15. Use of Computers

15.1 Use by Students of the College's computers will be subject to availability and at the College's discretion

15.2 The Student is prohibited for using the College's computers for unauthorised purposes including, but not limited to, accessing pornographic material or commercial activities

16. Conduct and Discipline

16.1 The College has the right, where reasonable, to expel the Student from the Course for unacceptable behaviour, poor performance or lack of attendance and no refund of Tuition Fees will be given if the Student is so expelled

16.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the College views unacceptable behaviour as including, but not limited to, causing damage to property, causing disturbance or nuisance, abusive or disrespectful conduct, failing to observe fire and safety rules and smoking other than in authorised areas and selling or consuming alcohol or illegal drugs on College premises

16.3 If the Student intentionally or negligently causes damage to College property, the Student will, without prejudice to the College's right to expel the Student, be expected to pay the full cost of repairing or replacing such property

17. Events outside the College's control

17.1 The College will not be liable or responsible for any failure to perform, or delay in performance of, any of its obligations in relation to the Student's Course or Accommodation that is caused by events outside the College's reasonable control (Force Majeure Event)

17.2 A Force Majeure Event includes any act, event, non-occurrence, omission or accident beyond the College's reasonable control and includes, in particular (without limitation), the following:

17.2.1 strikes or labour disputes;

17.2.2 civil commotion, riot, invasion, terrorist attack or threat of terrorist attack, war (whether declared or not) or threat or preparation for war; or

17.2.3 fire, explosion, storm, flood, earthquake, subsidence, epidemic or other natural disaster; or

17.2.4 impossibility of the use of railways, shipping, aircraft, motor transport or other means of public or private transport; or

17.2.5 impossibility of the use of public or private telecommunications networks.

17.3 The College's obligations in relation to the Student's Course or accommodation are suspended for the period that the Force Majeure Event continues, and the College will extend the time to perform these obligations for the duration of that period. The College will take reasonable steps to bring the Force Majeure Event to a close or to find a solution by which the College's obligations can be performed despite the Force Majeure Event

18. Liability

18.1 The College shall not be liable to any Student for any loss or damage which arises out of or in connection with or as a consequence of the Student's use of the College's premises, including, but not being limited to, loss of profit, damage to or loss of property or items belonging to the Student and any personal injury to the passenger (but only so far as such injury is not caused by the College's negligence)

18.2 The College is not responsible for the safekeeping and delivery of any post, fax etc. sent to the Student at the College address or for the safekeeping of exam results or certificates

19. General

19.1 Photographs of the students may be used in the College's promotional and publicity material unless the student specifically objects. Students will not be paid for the time involved in the taking of such photographs and will assign to the College any rights to royalties they may have. The College reserves the right to use all photographs in any way the College sees appropriate in promoting itself and the copyright to all photographs shall belong to the College

19.2 If any court or competent authority decides that any of the provisions of these terms and conditions are invalid, unlawful or unenforceable to any extent, the terms will, to that extent only, be severed from the remaining terms and conditions which will continue to be valid to the fullest extent permitted by law

19.3 If the College fails, at any time while these terms and conditions are in force, to insist that the Student performs any of the Student's obligations under these terms and conditions, or if the College does not exercise any of its rights or remedies under these terms and conditions, that will not mean that the College has waived such rights or remedies and will not mean that the Student does not have to comply with those obligations. If the College does waive a default by a Student, that will not mean that the College will automatically waive any subsequent default by the Student. No waiver by the College of any of these terms and conditions shall be effective unless the College expressly say that it is a waiver and tells the Student so in writing

19.4 A person who is not a party to these terms and conditions shall not have any rights under or in connection with them under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

19.5 These terms and conditions shall be governed by English law and the College and the Student agree to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts
